

Redland Hospital Graduate Nursing and Midwifery Program

Hospital Overview

Redland Hospital is a 188-bed secondary teaching hospital. Redland Specialises in integrated care with close and effective links with the local GP services and the community.

Redland Residential Care is a 126-bed high care residential aged care facility. It includes 16 residential care transition beds.

Redland Satellite Hospital, Talwalpin Milbul, is a community health facility located at Redland Bay. Its services include:

- Minor Injury and Illness Centre
- Cancer Day Unit
- Kidney Dialysis
- Outpatient services

Past Redland Hospital graduates are now working as

- Clinical Nurses and Midwives
- Nurse Unit Managers
- Educators
- Clinical Facilitators
- Nurse Practitioner

How we support our graduates

Graduate Co-ordinator- A supportive nurse educator who is responsible for the co-ordination and management of the graduate program.

Nursing and Midwifery Practice Development Unit (NMPDU) – Educators and clinical facilitators who work closely with graduates to support the transition from student to clinician.

Clinical Staff– experienced nurses and midwives on the clinical floor who assist in the socialisation, learning and support of graduates.

2025 Graduate Programs

- Cardiology
- Emergency Medicine
- General Medicine
- General Surgery
- Special Care Nursery
- Paediatrics
- Renal
- Perioperative
- Mental Health
- Midwifery
- Midwifery Group Practice

Benefits of undertaking a graduate program at Redland Hospital

A structured Nursing and Midwifery graduate program that will assist you to transition from novice to skilled practitioner.

- You will be provided with the educational and supportive tools you need to build an enriching and rewarding professional career.
- Supportive environment in the clinical and educational environment to promote confidence in clinical practice.
- Opportunity to complete or gain credit to postgraduate studies.
- Participation in an internationally recognised graduate program that is committed to building leaders of the future.
- Be part of an organisation that values governance with nursing and midwifery represented at all levels of the organisational structure.
- Participation in the Insight Quality Improvement program empowering graduates to make change within their clinical practice settings and beyond.

Metro South Hospital Initiatives

Testimonials

"Redland Hospital is an amazing place to start your career. The staff are incredibly knowledgeable and helpful. It is like one big family".

"The commitment to a graduates professional and personal development at Redland hospital is second to none. It has provided me with a strong knowledge base allowing me to feel safe in my practice as I care for women and their families. I feel incredibly honoured to have done my graduate program as a midwife at Redland".

metrosouth.health.qld.gov.au/join-our-team/graduate-programs