

Against Gender-Based Violence

25 November – 10 December

Risk factors include, but are not limited to:

- » Coercive control
- » Escalation of violence
- » Pregnancy or new birth
- » Separation (actual or pending)
- » Intimate partner sexual violence
- » Non-lethal strangulation (choking)
- » Stalking
- » Threats to kill
- » Perpetrator's access to or use of weapons
- » Pet abuse or threats of pet abuse

The time for change is here and now.

Violence against women is preventable.
