Partners in Innovation 2018

Partners in Innovation 2018, hosted by Metro South Health and GE Healthcare, brings thought-provoking presentations, exciting case studies and the next wave of innovation and technology that will impact healthcare delivery in Australia.

The symposium will also cover leading research projects and how healthcare providers can get the much needed support required from technology while further empowering doctors, healthcare providers and patients themselves.

Symposium attendees are invited to join us for morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea. If you have nominated for a special meal, a dietary table with meals will be set aside during meal breaks.

Key Topics

- Partnering in healthcare for improved patient and business outcomes
- Learnings from key medical research projects around Australia
- Improving healthcare productivity in the digital age
- Technological developments that are improving the patient-physician experience
